Abstracts

Over the last three years of the review period, non-grocery specialists recorded stronger value growth than grocery retailers. As of 2017, non-grocery specialists was still a significantly less-mature channel than grocery retailers in Bosnia-Herzegovina, which is expected considering how low the average income is. This also means that with each increase in incomes, the proportion spent on non-groceries is growing, which explains the growth pattern towards the end of the review period. The improv...
