Abstracts

Oji Holdings is set to shift its focus away from paper in the forecast period, with the company announcing a joint venture in tissue and hygiene with Mitsubishi Paper in May 2017. This will produce toilet paper and tissues and is expected to launch production in early-2019, with the two companies also developing a biomass power plant for launch in the same year. The company may scale back its operations in paper overall in the forecast period, including paper packaging. Within paper packaging,...
