Abstracts

After a significant decline in 2020, with sales falling by more than half due to the impact of COVID-19, travel intermediaries is set to see a rebound in 2021, although sales will remain well below the level seen in 2019, before the pandemic emerged. Uncertainty over travel restrictions and regularly changing quarantine rules in travel destinations have led to last-minute sales, which account for a growing share of business revenue. Last-minute sales to popular destinations such as Egypt, Turkey...
