Abstracts

After over a year of half-closures of physical outlets, three waves of the pandemic, and the amount of time spent on booking and then cancelling/postponing packaged trips, online intermediaries are almost back in the same position in the middle of 2021 than when the pandemic first emerged. However, after the collapse of 2020, 2021 is likely to see robust double-digit current value growth, benefitting from the many postponed bookings from the prior year. Furthermore, the acceleration of the vacci...
