Abstracts

In line with the Coronavirus (COVID-19) trend, consumers continue to book travel through mainly online channels during 2021. Although Ireland maintained a 5km travel limit in Q1 2021, the intent of consumers to travel domestically and abroad increased. As a result, consumers were incentivised to book holidays directly online and through online intermediaries like Expedia and Booking.com, supported by the option to pay during check-in and free cancellation policies. Much of this intent failed to...
