Abstracts

Due to COVID-19, online travel sales and the sales of travel intermediaries plummeted in 2020, and many companies were forced to offer free cancellations/amendments and refunds to travellers in order to avoid alienating them. However, strong rebounds are expected in 2021, as vaccination continues to roll out globally and the pandemic comes under better control. One of the reasons for the bounce-back in sales is the unique position of travel intermediaries, as they have expertise in all areas of...
