Abstracts

Travel intermediaries experienced a huge drop in sales from March to June 2020 due to Movement Control Orders that restricted inbound, outbound and domestic tourism. The majority of customers who signed up for holiday tours and packages are demanding refunds from travel intermediaries, with only a minority agreeing to postpone trips to 2021. As a result, travel intermediaries are facing poor cash flows and high debt levels, and thus being forced to close outlets and request employees to take unp...
