Abstracts

Online travel sales to country residents showed a positive trend in 2013, recording 13% growth in value sales. The positive trend is mainly a result of marginal recovery since 2011, and a global increase in online sales. The majority of categories in Croatia are still not focusing as much on online sales, although all indicators show strong growth trends. Airline online sales recorded the fastest growth due to the fact this is one of the rare categories with focused growth and strategy,...
