Abstracts

Online travel sales to country residents registered current value growth of 7% in 2013, reaching €3.8 billion. Although healthy, growth in 2013 was below the current CAGR of 9% for the review period. Some areas of travel and tourism services and products were already close to being mature, and growth of these was more moderate; however, smaller categories that were still yet to mature recorded strong current value growth, such as other transportation online sales to country residents (25%),...
