Abstracts

Online travel sales showed a strong performance in 2013 compared with the review period. Thanks to growing internet penetration, more consumers are now inclined to purchase online for most of their travel needs. Although all categories saw an impressive performance, airlines online sales showed the highest growth in value terms in 2013, of 23%. The biggest factor contributing to this was the growth in low-cost carriers, with sole operator Nasair gaining share by offering lucrative online deals...
