Abstracts

Online travel sales to country residents showed very positive development in 2013 and registered 12% growth compared to 2012. Such a good performance was caused by several factors; first of Slovenians are becoming much more comfortable with using e-commerce solutions and making transactions online; secondly, the difficult economic situation in the country made residents very price-sensitive, and as a result consumers tend to use the internet as a tool to find better deals for their holidays or...
