Abstracts

The overall performance of online travel sales to Thai residents recorded outstanding current value growth in 2013 of 26%. Car rental online sales showed the highest growth due to a small consumer base. Airlines online sales recorded the largest value share of all online travel sales to Thai residents due to the popularity of low cost carriers. According to an industry survey, average online sales of low cost carriers are remaining within a range of 60 - 80% of total low cost airline sales.
