Abstracts

Online travel sales to residents continued to profit from several factors in 2017. On the one hand, there are growing number of people in Austria who are digitally-savvy (also known as “digital immigrants” or “digital natives”). The number of so-called “digital outsiders” is thus decreasing. Both the younger population (18-35), as well as many middle-aged consumers and seniors (65+) do not shy away from the internet.
