Abstracts

Online travel sales to residents continue to gain ground against offline sales, rising by 15% to reach UAH16 billion in 2017. It should be noted that all categories posted a positive performance, despite the instability of the Ukrainian economy and the tense political situation in the country. Airlines direct online sales to residents grew by 18% to reach UAH2 billion in 2017 and is one of the most developed online travel areas in Ukraine, with consumers actively using various online services to...
