Abstracts

The rise of smartphones and the convenience of internet banking are dramatically shifting how consumers approach payments. With opportunity comes risk. Finding a way to regulate this new payscape must balance competing security, innovation and consumer protection demands. PSD2, the European Economic Area (EEA)'s attempt at just such a regulation, officially took effect in 2018. Its ongoing implementation will serve as a crucial lesson for the many attentive stakeholders watching beyond the EU.

Euromonitor International's Opening the Vaults: The Impact of PSD2 on the European Payscape and Beyond global briefing offers insight into the size and shape of the Consumer Finance market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market. Forecasts provide an invaluable perspective on market evolution and the criteria for success. The briefing leverages Euromonitor International's 360-degree coverage of the global payments' landscape including insight on consumer debt.

Product coverage: Consumer Lending, Financial Cards and Payments.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
