Abstracts

Oral care in Uzbekistan saw positive growth in 2023, largely driven by population growth in the country. However, as seen across various categories in beauty and personal care, the majority of consumers in the country are highly price-sensitive and thus purchase the essentials needed on a daily basis, as opposed to opting for additional products which are deemed to be non-essential. This means the majority of sales are in toothbrushes and toothpaste, with low interest in mouthwash, for example.
