Abstracts

2021 was the year in which COVID-19 revealed the worst of its economic impacts. The main impact in Brazil was rising inflation on inputs and therefore higher inflation on final prices. This has been a major concern for health and wellness categories, including organic beverages, since they are already positioned at a higher price point due to their higher costs, making them almost niche products. With prices increasing even further, this could translate into some middle class consumers jumping t...
