Abstracts

In 2021, organic beverages will remain a somewhat niche and underdeveloped product area in Hungary. Awareness of such products is not as high compared to other European countries. Likewise, many Hungarians are very price sensitive so even if they are aware of organic beverages, they are not likely to purchase them. Moreover, Hungarians still have access to open markets where local farmers and small producers sell products such as juice, that although may not conform to EU standards of organic be...
