Abstracts

Sales of organic beverages continued to benefit from the closure of Norway's borders for much of 2021, with consumers forced to shop domestically. Furthermore, organic coffee and, to a lesser extent, organic tea, continued to benefit from large numbers of consumers continuing to work from home for much of the year.

Euromonitor International's Organic Beverages in Norway report tracks the developments of health-associated product types and the healthy-option positioning of competing brands across different food sectors. It provides the latest retail sales data 2017-2021, allowing you to compare health and wellness categories with each other or in the context of the total market for a sector. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market- be they new product developments, legislative context or lifestyle influences. Forecasts to 2026 illustrate how the market is set to change.

Product coverage: Organic Hot Drinks, Organic Soft Drinks.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
