Abstracts

Consumers in Thailand tend to see organic products as premium options, as they are usually more expensive than non-organic alternatives. As this is also the case for organic beverages, the consumer base for this category remained small and niche in 2021. While high prices saw some consumers move away from organic products due to the economic effects of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, retail volume and current value sales dipped only moderately in 2020. In 2021, as the country started to rec...
