Abstracts

Organic beverages remained a niche category in the United Arab Emirates in 2021. These products are rarely seen on retailers' shelves and on-trade distribution is limited to relatively few high-end establishments. Generally, consumer awareness of organic beverages is quite low and this has resulted in negligible sales over the review period. Furthermore, low consumer interest means limited companies are present in the category. Indeed, Raw is one of the few brands with a visible presence on reta...
