Abstracts

The COVID-19 crisis has had a negative impact on demand for organic beverages in the Vietnamese market, as the key consumers for such products have historically been foreigners and tourists. The pandemic and measures imposed to curb the spread of the SARS-CoV-2 virus have led to a sharp decline in international travel and a marked fall in inbound arrivals in Vietnam. This has significantly reduced the consumer base for organic beverages.

Euromonitor International's Organic Beverages in Vietnam report tracks the developments of health-associated product types and the healthy-option positioning of competing brands across different food sectors. It provides the latest retail sales data 2017-2021, allowing you to compare health and wellness categories with each other or in the context of the total market for a sector. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market- be they new product developments, legislative context or lifestyle influences. Forecasts to 2026 illustrate how the market is set to change.

Product coverage: Organic Hot Drinks, Organic Soft Drinks.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
