Abstracts

Organic dairy is experiencing stable demand as Australians become increasingly conscious of food origins. Consumers are visibly making ethical and conscious decisions around food choices and are inclined to lean towards products that claim to be free from chemicals and preservatives. The interest in organic food also stems from the fact that consumers are focused on sustainable practices that extend from packaging to ingredient selection and farming.

Euromonitor International's Organic Packaged Food in Australia report tracks the developments of health-associated product types and the healthy-option positioning of competing brands across different food sectors. It provides the latest retail sales data 2017-2021, allowing you to compare health and wellness categories with each other or in the context of the total market for a sector. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market- be they new product developments, legislative context or lifestyle influences. Forecasts to 2026 illustrate how the market is set to change.
