Abstracts

Organic sales have also benefited from Austrian consumers' poor perception of the country's food industry. A series of food scandals, especially in the country's meat industry, has driven demand for regional and organic food. This in turn has strengthened Austria's organic sector, which has the highest percentage of organically farmed agricultural land in the EU. The strength of organic packaged food in Austria is underpinned by an exceptional distribution network, at least in comparison to othe...
