Abstracts

The organic packaged food category is still in development in Peru in 2021 with the only two categories that have any relatively substantial retail value sales being organic prepared baby food and organic pasta, of which the latter has the largest value share. Both categories recorded further decline in 2021 as organic packaged food is expensive, and more consumers have become price sensitive as a consequence of the pandemic. Also, there is not a clear understanding amongst Peruvians of what org...
