Abstracts

Organic packaged food performed well overall, despite the disruption caused by COVID-19. While many consumers were pushed to cut back on non-essential products due to prevailing economic uncertainty, consumers of organic packaged food were not generally willing to switch back to standard products to make savings. As such, all organic packaged food has performed well in 2020 and 2021. In fact, the product area is growing in demand due to the health and wellness trend, which has been further bolst...
