Abstracts

Organic packaged food is a sizeable product area within Slovakia in terms of value sales. However, in 2021, with consumers feeling the pinch from the economic fallout of the pandemic, as well as the rising cost of living, organic registered lower growth than it has for the past two years. However, with the situation slowly improving, sales of organic packaged food are expected to pick up and, with a growing number health-conscious consumers, organic should remain among the fastest-growing health...
