Abstracts

Following a year of dynamic current value growth in 2020, organic packaged food recorded positive yet moderated growth in 2021. With the pandemic shedding light on the role that well-established supply chains play in high-quality end products, more and more consumers opted for organic offerings that are considered safer. However, although food safety is a key reason why consumers search for organic products, it is not the main one. According to Euromonitor International's Voice of the Consumer:...
