Abstracts

Sales of other pet food in Germany continued to develop well during 2009, driven mainly by the slowly increasing ownership of fish and small mammals. On the other hand, the number of birds owned by German consumers continues to decline, although there are some voices suggesting their number might have reached its lowest point during 2009.

Euromonitor International's Other Pet Food in Germany report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data 2005-2009, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts to 2014 illustrate how the market is set to change.
