Abstracts

This family-owned business is facing financial and structural challenges, with it applying for judicial redress as from the third quarter of 2016. A management team plans to reorganise the business but it is rejecting any ceding-off venture, with the strategic plan being to reduce manpower and invest more in the development of cordless as well as robotic equipment. While Outils Wolf may not be keen to embark on a full takeover plan, the management team may be open to minority investors and/or bu...
