Abstracts

Overall, COVID-19 is expected to benefit packaged food in Bulgarian with healthy current value and retail volume growth. The healthy value growth was mainly driven by more cooking at home due to strict lockdown measures being in place. Even products that had been registering low volume growth over the review period, such as sauces, dressings and condiments, are expected to register a boost in current value sales in 2020, due to increased home cooking. Also rice, noodles and pasta are expected to...
