Abstracts

Since the outbreak of COVID-19 in Kenya and the subsequent implementation of lockdown measures and social distancing restrictions, consumer focus in packaged food has turned to essential goods and healthier options in retail. Categories containing products that are perceived as non-essential or are viewed as unhealthy, on the other hand, are expected to see reduced demand in 2020. As such, essential product categories, such as edible oils, baked goods and drinking milk products are expected to S...
