Abstracts

Paediatric consumer health is poised for solid growth in current value terms in Brazil in 2023, maintaining a rate of increase similar to that observed in 2022. While in 2022, in-person schooling exposed children to colds and flu, in 2023, another significant driver of consumption in the category has emerged: cases of arboviruses (dengue, zika, and chikungunya). Dengue cases, in particular, have captured widespread attention in Brazil. Presently, the probable cases of these diseases have surpass...
