Abstracts

Paper tableware remained very much a niche category within tissue and hygiene products in 2009. Besides being small, the category also lacked dynamism, as overall value sales remained fairly stagnant. Belgian consumers prefer traditional tableware or kitchen towels, and often do not use napkins, unless it is for a special occasion, or when they have guests. This means that unless it is Christmas, the Belgians are reluctant to spend money on tissue and hygiene tableware for everyday use. This...
