Paper tableware's performance was the most distinguished in Uzbek's tissue and hygiene industry in 2009. This is reflected by low retail volume growth but high current value growth despite the dominance of domestic products. This implies that the category is less vulnerable to currency fluctuations. However, producers have blamed price hikes on high production costs, especially the dependency on imported ingredients. In 2009 current value sales increased by 13%, while retail volume sales grew...
