Abstracts

Paradise Retail Holding may well restrict its outlet expansion over the forecast period, due to a slowing economy. It is expected to continue to streamline its operations, closing underperforming Pets Paradise outlets as they come to the end of their 10-year franchise contracts. However, the company is expected to continue to expand its Pet Goods Direct chain, which saw strong growth in value and volume terms towards the end of the review period. This chain is expected to continue to benefit...
