Abstracts

Over the past two decades, packaging trends in Mexico have undergone significant transformations, reflecting evolving consumer preferences and environmental concerns. There has been increasing adoption of plastic pouches, particularly in the food industry, due to their ability to act as lightweight, cost-effective and eco-friendly refill options. These pouches, especially in categories like sauces and baby food, offer convenience and reduce packaging waste.

Euromonitor International's Packaging in Mexico report offers insight into key trends and developments in the industry. The report also examines trends and prospect for various pack types and closures: metal packaging, rigid plastic, glass, liquid cartons, paper-based containers; flexible packaging.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
