Abstracts

Personal Accessories keep growing worldwide, and the category is expected to post 4% retail value growth in 2017. Once again, Asia Pacific is the major contributor of this healthy performance, contributing with over 80% of total value gained globally. After years of market polarization between luxury brands and fast-fashion operators, consumers are now increasingly opting for in-between propositions. This is leading to the rapid rise of affordable luxury brands and an increasing appeal for...
