Abstracts

2021 was a favourable year for personal luxury in Russia. Among the main factors behind this were the fact Russia's borders remained closed until April, thus limiting the ability of Russians to go abroad to shop for luxury goods. As a result, wealthier people redirected their spending from travelling and purchasing goods abroad to spending on personal luxury in Russia.

Euromonitor International's Personal Luxury in Russia report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the Personal Luxury market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market and their effects on Personal Luxury retailing along with the development of consumers' shopping patterns. Forecasts to 2025 illustrate how the market is set to change
