Abstracts

Higher consumer spending due to urbanisation, more online and offline retail opportunities due to high economic activity, and a growing interest in personal style and expression as a response to long periods of COVID-19 lockdowns are set to drive growth in personal accessories in 2023. As a revenge category, personal accessories has a good foundation for growth, and in 2023 is expected to see a full recovery from the contraction to value sales seen in the market in 2020 due to the pandemic.
