Abstracts

Personal care appliances witnessed declining volume sales in 2023, following a boom period during the pandemic, when products such as beard and hair trimmers and feminine depilation gained popularity. Consumers remain under financial strain in 2023, despite inflation falling slightly, with higher interest rates putting pressure on household budgets. On the other hand, price increases and premiumisation is underpinning current value growth. Consumers are willing to invest in high quality products...
