Abstracts

Nearly every subsector in personal stationery recorded declines in 2009. This sector was hit hard by the recession at a time when it was already undergoing a large-scale transformation which saw growth rates languishing below 2%. Many believe the recent economic downturn merely hastened the inevitable in the UK personal stationery sector. Negative growth might have been induced by macroeconomic issues, but growth rates had already been dropping throughout the review period.

Euromonitor International's Personal Stationery in United Kingdom report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data (2005-2009), allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth. It identifies the leading companies, the leading brands and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market – be they new product developments, distribution or pricing issues.
