Abstracts

The growing use of smart and wearable devices has transformed holiday booking processes as well as the overall travel experience. Travellers are no longer seeking unification and standardisation in products and services. Airlines will need to be swift to embrace wearable electronics and deliver personalised product offerings as part of their strategies, targeting always-connected consumers in order not to lose ground to competitors.

Euromonitor International's The Personalisation of Passenger Journey global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Travel and Tourism market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market from innovation, pricing, channel distribution to economic/lifestyle influences. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and outlines the criteria for success.

Product coverage: Car Rental, Demand Factors, Health and Wellness Tourism, Online Travel Sales to Country Residents, Tourism Flows Domestic, Tourism Flows Inbound, Tourism Flows Outbound, Tourism Receipts and Expenditure, Tourist Attractions, Transportation, Travel Accommodation, Travel Retail.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
