Abstracts

2023 saw a return to relative normality in Spain with the World Health Organisation declaring the health crisis to be over. All COVID-19 related restrictions had been lifted by July 2023 which helped to boost consumer confidence and resulted in Spaniards getting back to their pre-pandemic lifestyles with most people no longer wearing face masks. Nevertheless, despite the country seeing the end of the pandemic sales of personal accessories did not see a return to pre-pandemic figures in either vo...
