Abstracts

Pet care saw higher retail volume and current value growth in 2020 than earlier in the review period. The increase in growth was caused by COVID-19 social distancing precautions and remote working and schooling during the first months of the year, as people spent more time at home and interacted more with their pets, creating tighter connections. The pet population also continued to rise, with many people adopting animals from shelters, which contributed to growth. COVID-19 led to stronger deman...
