Abstracts

The Kingdom's pharmaceuticals and medical equipment industry continued growing during 2018, despite changing regulations and intensified competition. Growth was fuelled by enhanced production localisation and rising sales within the domestic market in line with the increased number of inpatients and higher public funds for the expansion of healthcare provision capacity. On the one hand, inpatients at healthcare facilities surged by 7.9% year on year to exceed 3.5 million people in 2018. Growth w...
