Abstracts

In 2023, plant-based dairy is set to perform well, with average unit prices remaining relatively stable. The demand for plant-based products continues as more and more consumers take an interest in animal welfare, the environment and health. Plant-based cheese records the most dynamic performance within plant-based dairy; however, growth stems from a very low sales base. New product launches within plant-based cheese are aiding sales, appealing to consumers interested in dairy alternatives.
