Abstracts

Consumer demand for plant-based dairy picked up in 2023, resulting in strong double-digit current value growth and a better performance in retail volume sales compared to the previous year. There is a growing appetite for dairy alternatives and plant-based products, aided by the health and wellness trend, which is bringing more consumers into the category. In response to rising demand, category players are regularly launching interesting new products under a range of new brands and these are inc...
