Abstracts

While sales are still relatively low, there is an appetite for plant-based dairy and it is expected to register very healthy current value and volume growth in 2023. Value sales are largely driven by younger consumers, which consider plant-based products to be healthier and less damaging to the environment. Plant-based UHT milk dominate sales and local company Induveca also offers plant-based milk in powder format, with its brand Nutra. Other plant-based milks such as almond and coconut are expe...
