Abstracts

Plant-based dairy products continued to gain popularity in Slovakia in 2023, although the rate of growth in retail volume terms was much slower than that seen during the first half of the review period. Demand is being driven by a growing number of people following flexitarian and vegan diets, as they seek to lead healthier lifestyles. The increasing prevalence of food allergies and intolerances also contributed to the rise of plant-based products, with more and more companies introducing plant-...
